Boston Gunman Is Nabbed In Brink's Holdup

FBI Contends Thug One Of Masked Men In $1,219,000 Robbery

BOSTON (P)—Joseph J. "Specs" O'Keefe, 44-year-old Boston gunman has been nabbed by the FBI as one of the masked men who robbed the Brink's Boston headquarters of $1,219,000 on the night of Jan. 17, 1950.

O'Keefe was named in affidavits filed by the FBI with the federal court in Boston.

The affidavits were revealed late Thursday as O'Keefe fought a contempt of court charge resulting from his refusal to answer pertinent questions before a grand jury hearing evidence in the fabulous stickup.

One of the affidavits, signed by John B. Greene, a special agent of the FBI who heads the Brink's investigation, says that he "has reason to believe that Joseph J. O'Keefe was one of the participants in the robbery."

A second affidavit says that $60,000 in Brink's loot was hidden in a house occupied by O'Keefe's sister, Mrs. Mary A. Hooley, 37.

A THIRD affidavit sets forth that on July 19, 1950, the $60,000 was transferred to the home of a Mary O'Keefe, identified as Joseph O'Keefe's wife.

A fourth affidavit tells of an alleged telephone conversation between O'Keefe, then serving 90 days in a Pennsylvania jail, for carrying weapons in his car, and Mary O'Keefe.

Greene says in the paper: "He (O'Keefe) asked his wife whether or not she had been interviewed by federal enforcement officials and she said she had."

"He asked whether or not anything was found, and she answered: 'No,' and later he told her: 'Just take good care of the baby. You know what I mean?'"

Federal authorities said there is no O'Keefe baby.

One of the affidavits asserts that the $60,000 of alleged Brink's loot was hidden in an overstuffed baby stroller chair and tucked in a leather zippered overnight bag" in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hooley, O'Keefe's sister and brother-in-law.

Mrs. Hooley earlier this week was given a one-year sentence for contempt of court after she refused to answer before the grand jury the question:

"DID YOU ever at any time see $70,000 in cash?"

Her husband also is charged with contempt of court for refusing to talk before the grand jury.

O'Keefe's contempt of court case has not yet been completed and Hooley's contempt case has been continued to next Monday. Hooley and his wife, who appealed the sentence, are free on bail.

Labor Law Hearings Due Early, Report

WASHINGTON (P)—Hearings aimed at redrafting of the Taft-Hartley labor law have been set as one of the first major pieces of business by the new Republican House of Representatives.

Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.), due to become chairman of the House Labor Committee, said today the whole field of labor-management relations would be reviewed by his committee at sessions tentatively set to start early in February.

"From that hope we can evolve a bill," he said. "If the Taft-Hartley law can be patched up and worked out, all right. If not, a whole new bill may have to be written."

Although McConnell has not taken a public position, his dissatisfaction with Taft-Hartley as the nation's basic labor law is widely recognized on Capitol Hill.

He is understood to feel that Taft-Hartley is too complex, not easily understood by either labor or management, and a symbol of unnecessary controversy which the Republicans would do well to erase. The GOP platform endorsed the law, but called for any changes shown by experience to be needed. The platform didn't spell them out.

Across the Capitol, Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) is for retaining the law which bears his name. Any effort to bring out a wholly new law seems certain to stir up the powerful opposition of the Ohio senator.

Taft does favor changes in Taft-Hartley and already plans to introduce in the Senate again most of the 28 amendments passed in 1949 but which died in a hostile House.

Anti-Filibuster Plan Is Seen Throwing Senate Into Turmoil

WASHINGTON (P)—Senators trying to figure out how to smash filibusters are considering strategy that could throw the opening session of the new Senate on Jan. 3 into an uproar.

Behind their efforts is a desire to clear the way for civil rights measures. They hope to deprive opponents of their most trusted weapon, the filibuster, which can be used to talk legislation to death.

A leader in the move, Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), said today Republican and Democratic senators who favor making it easier to shut off debate have been invited to confer here Dec. 30.

One course of action under study is to move at the start of the session for the adoption of new Senate rules—a maneuver aimed at eliminating Rule 22.

Under Rule 22, a halt can be called to a filibuster only by the votes of 64 senators, or two-thirds of the entire membership. Opponents contend it is almost impossible to apply.

WHAT'S MORE, Rule 22 provides that no debate limitation whatever shall apply to proposals to change the rules, so that any move to change it can be talked to death.

Tentative opening-day strategy outlined by Humphrey to cope with this roadblock to civil rights and other legislation involves some fast parliamentary footwork.

Here's what Humphrey expects would happen if the plan were put into execution:

At the outset of the session a motion would be made to adopt new Senate rules; the vice president, who is Senate presiding officer, probably would rule that the motion was out of order.

An appeal would be taken from the ruling of the vice president; only a majority vote is necessary to overturn such a ruling.

If the vice president were overruled, the effect would be to leave the Senate without any rules. In that case ordinary parliamentary rules would apply and any senator attempting to filibuster against the adoption of new rules no longer would have the protection of Rule 22.

The Eagles are going to give the papers to the next scrap paper drive put on in Norwood.

But the unhappiest persons of all are employees in the city's postoffice. They had to wade through all five bags of mail checking addresses and then delivered the whole works to the same place.

Stassen, Taft Hold Conference

CINCINNATI (P)—Harold E. Stassen, named recently by President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower to be mutual security director, conferred here Thursday with U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft but they had little to say about the meeting.

Both Taft and Stassen were unsuccessful candidates against Gen. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination. Taft said Stassen "came to see me to talk over the mutual security program, the extent of it and what the appropriations would be."

Delivery Truckers Get Salary Boost

CLEVELAND (P)—AFL delivery drivers for Cleveland's three daily newspapers, the Plain Dealer, Press and News, Thursday night were granted a weekly wage increase of $7.80.

Night drivers now will receive $115.70 for a six-day, 45-hour week and day drivers $114.70 for a six-day, 48-hour week.

Legion Corps' Annual Toy Tour Nets 2 Truckloads, $164 Cash

Circleville's annual Toy Tour netting $164.50 and at least two truckloads of toys, has been declared "a solid success."

James P. Shea, member of Circleville's American Legion drum and bugle corps which sponsored the toy roundup for needy children, said:

"When everything is considered it surely rates as a solid success. We had an awfully bad break from the weather on our first night, but on the later collections the people of Circleville certainly came through."

"It developed that the success of the Toy Tour was limited only by our pickup facilities. Thursday night in our pickups through the Northend, and last week in the central section, we packed our big truck with toys.

"Then we had to turn to unloading the toys at Memorial Hall. Had we anticipated the success of the effort we could have used two trucks just for the loading."

Members of the drum and bugle unit traveled through the various neighborhoods playing appropriate music while some of the corps members and Boy Scouts went from door to door for donations.

During Thursday night pickups in the Northend the Tour collected $75 in addition to the truckload of toys. Of the cash collected Thursday night, $42 will be turned over to the fund for reconstruction of the Monford Pollock home.

The home reconstruction project, launched after Monford and his family were burned out of their dwelling, has drawn support from all over the community.

Shea said some homes, especially in the Southend where the Toy Tour was cut short by a heavy rainstorm Dec. 4, may still be holding toys or other donations. He said

Taft, Bricker Tell Ohio GOP They Will Screen Patronage

WASHINGTON (P)—Ohio's two senators have let it be known they intend to have a major hand in determining who gets important federal jobs in Ohio under the new Republican administration.

Letters have gone out from Sens. Robert A. Taft and John W. Bricker to GOP county chairmen, outlining the procedure for handling federal job patronage.

The offices of Ohio Republican congressmen have been deluged with requests for jobs from party members in the state.

Taft and Bricker said in their joint letters that all applications must first be presented for approval to the respective Republican county committees. They added:

"Applications and recommendations for positions involving a district larger than a county, such as federal judgeships, United States marshals, United States attorney, etc., should be made directly to us after submission to the county committee."

They continued, "if there is no Republican congressman, application should be made to us, but will be submitted for approval to the Republican National Committee, Rep. Clarence Brown, Katherine Brown and Ray Bliss."

The two Browns have been Ohio Republican national committee man and committee woman, respectively, for quite some time. Bliss, chairman of the Republican State Central committee, now serves on the national committee under revised rules adopted at the July national GOP convention.

The Ohio senators told the county chairman they "reserve the right to make recommendations to positions having only local or county significance" in Hamilton County, Taft's home, and Franklin County, Bricker's residence.

But they added the assurance that "a satisfactory working arrangement" will be worked out with the House members involved, Reps. John M. Vorys, William E. Hess and Gordon H. Scherer.

Nearly Everything In Readiness For Completion Of City's Gift

Nearly everything was in readiness Friday for speedy completion of Circleville's "Christmas Present."

More donations, both of cash and materials, Friday seemed to insure completion of the exterior of a brand-new-home for Montford Pollock and his family by the first of next week.

More donations, both of cash and materials, Friday seemed to insure completion of the exterior of a brand-new-home for Montford Pollock and his family by the first of next week.

Under supervision of Contractor Karl Smith, workmen representing the American Legion and others are expected to complete the sheathing of the house and get it under cover this weekend.

Circleville roofers will then move in, they have announced, and supply the roof for the new four-room house.

Talmer Wise, father of the city's largest Christmas present in history, announced additional donations of about $25 in cash plus electrical equipment.

And Circleville's American Legion drum and bugle corps collected about $42 in cash for the project Thursday night in its final "Toy Tour" program.

If everything goes as planned, the Pollocks, who were left homeless a week ago Wednesday when fire destroyed their small houses, should be able to move into their new home in time to enjoy Christmas there.

Scouts, Cubs To Stage Food Drive Saturday

Circleville Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts will work Saturday to complete their "good turn" for Christmas.

City Scouts and Cubs will set out at 9 a. m. Saturday to canvass the homes of Circleville in search of Christmas food for needy families.

More than 100 lads—all in uniform—are to participate in the campaign, seeking staple food items or cash. Money collected may be used to purchase poultry.

Groups participating will be Troops 121, 205 and 52 and Cub Packs 205 and 52.

Firemen Team With Hospital To Save Baby

Members of Circleville fire department and the staff of Berger hospital teamed up quickly Thursday to help save the life of a two-month old Chillicothe child.

The baby, Portia Ann Kaltenbach, was being taken in an ambulance from Chillicothe to Children's Hospital, Columbus, and the child's condition required oxygen throughout the trip.

South of Circleville the ambulance crew and a nurse in charge noticed the supply of oxygen had run dangerously low, and the ambulance was directed to Circleville fire department.

The department's oxygen equipment, however, could not be used on the infant and emergency arrangements were made for the case at Berger hospital by the firemen. Members of the ambulance crew were clearly worried over their dwindling oxygen supply when the ambulance sped away from the fire station.

WITH AN additional supply obtained at the hospital, the child was taken on to Children's Hospital. Portia Ann's condition was reported "fair" early Friday at the Columbus hospital.

The child is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaltenbach of Chillicothe. The father is assistant manager for a sewing machine store in that city.

Nature of the child's illness was not learned.

Kneece Loses License 1 Year

Cecil Kneece, 32, of 476 Dearborn avenue, had his driving rights suspended for one year when he appeared in common pleas court on an accusation of drunken driving.

Kneece, involved in a two-car head-on crash on Route 23 last Monday night, also was fined $25 and costs (suspended) and sentenced to 30 days in jail (suspended).

The man appeared before the court of Judge William D. Radcliff on an affidavit presented by Prosecutor Guy Cline.

Earlier, Kneece was fined $100 and costs before the court of Magistrate Oscar Root for leaving the scene of the accident.

Auto Makers Get Additional Steel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Auto makers have been promised enough steel in the first three months of next year to build 175,000 more cars and trucks—probably their full authorization of 1 1/4 million autos and 315,000 trucks.

Officials said this supplemental allotment announced Thursday should be sufficient to avert the shutdown which some sources had said might occur. The Defense Production Administration earmarked for civilian industry an additional 550,000 tons of steel, of which the auto industry got 353,000 tons. The rest will go to makers of such civilian goods as refrigerators and farm equipment.

Two Lads Nabbed For Taking Guns

Two Pickaway County lads, ages 14 and 13, were rounded up Thursday by Deputy Walter Richards for stealing a shotgun, rifle and a box of shotgun shells from the home of Clarence Peters Jr., Circleville Route 3.

Richards said the youths first told him they had hid the booty in a "cave" along the Old Canal Road. He found the "cave," he said, but no guns or shells.

Later the shotgun was found near the house of the 14-year-old and the rifle near the home of the 13-year-old. No accusations were filed.

Electric Firms Increase Wages

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—Pay raises for 300,000 employees of the General Electric, Westinghouse and Sylvania Products Cos. were approved Thursday by the Wage Stabilization Board.

Frank Fiorillo, an international representative of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, said he had received word from Washington that the board had voted approval. Fiorillo said the increases would apply to all production workers of all plants operated by the three companies.

day that the President-elect is considering whether to go before Congress and set forth his legislative program after he takes office Jan. 20.

SITTING IN with Eisenhower and Martin were Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, in line to be majority floor leader, and Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, who probably will be assistant leader.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and other Senate GOP leaders will get together with Eisenhower soon for a similar conference on the legislative program being drafted by the new administration.

After the House group's meeting with the general, Halleck said the Truman administration "has just about destroyed the whole program of stabilization."

Agreeing, Martin said the outgoing Democratic regime has the program "on the ground gasping for breath."

The situation was underscored, Halleck said, by Truman's approval of the $1.90 wage increase for coal miners. That action brought on the protest resignation of industry members of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Martin said he and his House colleagues discussed in a general way with Eisenhower what to do about wage-price controls, but reached no decision.

Eisenhower aides said the matter is being given much study because of the economic consequences in the picture.

WITH DEFENSE spending certain to remain high, the new administration is taking a cautious approach to the idea of letting wage-price control authority expire.

Spiraling prices and uncontrolled wages could put the Republicans on a political spot they want to avoid. And the Democrats appear determined to keep the controls program in operation until Jan. 20, when the opposition party will inherit the responsibility for a decision on what to do next.

Bertie Palm Held For Grand Jury

Bertie Palm, 54, of Circleville, was held on $300 bond in the court of Mayor Ed Amey Thursday for Pickaway County grand jury action on an accusation of cutting with intent to wound.

Palm was arrested by Officer Turney Ross earlier this week for tossing a piece of concrete through a plate glass window of Mecca Restaurant, West Main street.

Accusation was filed by Gerald "Doc" Hanley, operator of the restaurant. The plate window was valued at about $120.

Firemen Team With Hospital To Save Baby

Members of Circleville fire department and the staff of Berger hospital teamed up quickly Thursday to help save the life of a two-month old Chillicothe child.

The baby, Portia Ann Kaltenbach, was being taken in an ambulance from Chillicothe to Children's Hospital, Columbus, and the child's condition required oxygen throughout the trip.

South of Circleville the ambulance crew and a nurse in charge noticed the supply of oxygen had run dangerously low, and the ambulance was directed to Circleville fire department.

The department's oxygen equipment, however, could not be used on the infant and emergency arrangements were made for the case at Berger hospital by the firemen. Members of the ambulance crew were clearly worried over their dwindling oxygen supply when the ambulance sped away from the fire station.

WITH AN additional supply obtained at the hospital, the child was taken on to Children's Hospital. Portia Ann's condition was reported "fair" early Friday at the Columbus hospital.

The child is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaltenbach of Chillicothe. The father is assistant manager for a sewing machine store in that city.

Nature of the child's illness was not learned.

Kneece Loses License 1 Year

Cecil Kneece, 32, of 476 Dearborn avenue, had his driving rights suspended for one year when he appeared in common pleas court on an accusation of drunken driving.

Kneece, involved in a two-car head-on crash on Route 23 last Monday night, also was fined $25 and costs (suspended) and sentenced to 30 days in jail (suspended).

The man appeared before the court of Judge William D. Radcliff on an affidavit presented by Prosecutor Guy Cline.

Earlier, Kneece was fined $100 and costs before the court of Magistrate Oscar Root for leaving the scene of the accident.

Hummel Tells Rotary Clubbers Of Activities In Early Schools

John D. Hummel, a school teacher, 52 years ago, spoke on "The Red School House" and served as school master for a meeting of Circleville Rotary Club Thursday in Elk's Home.

Following a turkey dinner, Hummel said school teaching is a different proposition now than it was in those days.

He said the schoolmaster had to throw a little bit about everything and had to provide education for all the classes.

Hummel said he first started teaching in Punkin' Ridge school near the banks of Salt Creek, and the little school was heated by a "pot bellied" stove and water was carried from a nearby well.

EQUIPMENT was very poor, he said, and they were very happy when they finally received real slates to use in their school work. Since there was little money for equipment, extra money was obtained by giving various entertainments for an admission fee.

He said in his first school there were four rows of seats, graduated in size to accommodate various sizes of students. He ended by saying that they also had a fool's cap and dunce's stool.

After reading various selections from old readers, T. O. Gilliland read, "What I Live For," and Dr. G. D. Phillips gave a reading from an old school book.

Charles May, who taught school 61 years ago, said he was hired by

Navy Reminds Career Aided By Education

"Stay in school," the U. S. Navy advises Pickaway County youths who may be inclined to cut short their education for early enlistment.

OM-1-C George E. Markley, recruiting officer for the Navy here, reminds all prospective enlistees that a good education can lead to better Navy career.

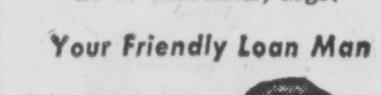

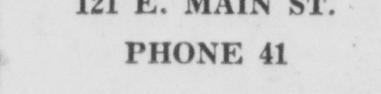

Markley has called attention to official Navy advice given boys and girls who may think of quitting school before graduation. It reads: "In most cases it's up to you whether or not you finish school. And finishing school may perhaps be the wisest thing you'll ever do."

"NOBODY knows what lies ahead in the coming years, except that the chances are your generation will be called to bat in as tough a contest as the world has ever seen."

"Nothing will make this contest easy. However, continuing to play it for keeps—holding the long view that looks beyond this year and next—will help an awful lot. And the basis of this long view is a real education."

Markley alternates with IC-1-C Al Hahn in handling the Navy recruiting here.

One or the other can be found every Friday in the Elks Lodge from 10:30 a. m. until 2 p. m. All those interested in a Navy career, whether actually ready to enlist or not, may drop around and ask questions.

Old Home Here Gives Up Secret

An old Circleville house being remodeled gave up a secret this week of an era when workmen proudly marked their work for posterity.

In the old Bertha Lewis home on South Scioto street, located between Main and Franklin streets, workmen this week began stripping paper from the wall.

The house was purchased by Ben Gordon, Circleville president of City Council, and is being remodeled for future tenants.

Giving a clue to its age, several layers of paper stripped from the walls of the old home revealed the following inscription: "Papers by George L. Darwin, May 3, 1872."

Returning to the United States in time for the Christmas holidays following a seven-month tour of duty in Korean waters aboard the destroyer USS John R. Craig is Richard E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Anderson of 113 North Scioto St.

During her third tour of duty in the Far East, the Craig participated in all phases of the jack-of-all-trades destroyer-type warfare. She operated with British and U.S. aircraft carriers on the West coast of Korea and with the fast aircraft carrier Task Force 77 of the East coast plus a tour of duty in the Formosa Patrol.

She also participated in harassing and interdiction firing and shore bombardment while blockading the Korean coasts.

The fast 2,200-ton destroyer scored hits on gun emplacements, personnel bunkers, mortar positions and supply areas, and was fired on by Communist shore battery four times within one 10-day period in October. Each time the enemy guns were silenced with rapid five-inch return fire.

ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS EVE

By WILLIAM RITT

HOPING that the people who live near the North Pole may be able to help him find the missing reindeer, Santa Claus calls up his home newspaper, The North Pole News. Here is the story that startled all Eskimo Land.

A COPY of The North Pole News is brought by carrier pigeon to the igloo home of Eski, a very young Eskimo but an old friend of Santa Claus. Eski's father reads the terrible news to Eski who finds it hard to believe.

POOR ESKI, saddened by the thought that the good children of the world may not receive this Christmas the gifts they deserve, is unable to eat any supper though there is a delicious snowberry pudding for dessert.

WHERE—oh, where—could those runaway reindeer of Santa Claus be? Midnight finds Eski tossing and turning, unable to sleep, because of dreams of a whole World sad and neglected on Christmas. (To Be Continued)

To GI Joe: Our Best Christmas Gift Would Be Having You Back

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to GI Joe in Korea:

Dear Joe,

Well, kid, I thought I would fill you in on the news from your Uncle Sugar Able—the old USA.

Everybody is excited about the big reunion and reconciliation of Gen. Ike and Gen. Mac. There has been nothing like it since Stanley met Dr. Livingston in darkest Africa.

Gen. Mac is supposed to have bent Gen. Ike's ear with a new plan to get you out of Korea. The Democrats, taking a tip from Harry S. Truman, are saying, "well, what is it?" And the Republicans are saying, "wait and see."

However, nobody has said anything yet about speeding up the rotation system, and if I were you, Joe, I'd go on keeping my feet dry and my rifle clean. No matter what the generals make, it's the doughboy who has to carry it out.

Everybody here is off on the annual Christmas gift buying jag. It looks like a record year, and even the dogs on Park Avenue are wearing mink jackets.

"I never saw such prosperity," a friend of mine told me. "Why, there were 40 people ahead of me at the finance company this morning, waiting for the doors to open so they could borrow money to buy Christmas presents."

The way things are, Joe, a fellow can hardly afford not to borrow money. It's the only way you can be sure you still got some credit. And, of course, the Democrats say, "Well, you might as well borrow all you can. When the Republicans get in, there won't be any money or credit either."

The Democrats are still so mad at losing the election it's hard to figure whether they are afraid of a depression under the GOP, or are yearning for one. I guess it is hard on morale to get thrown out of a swivel chair after 20 years.

The government is busy investigating everybody in Washington who can't afford to winter in Florida. The way it seems to work is that they all choose up sides, and say, "you investigate us this week, and we'll investigate you next week."

Another theory is that the Democrats want to get each other all investigated now so that when the Republicans get in power the only ones left for them to investigate will be themselves.

It looks like the new Congress may go on television, and the gossip is they are holding out for a more appropriate sponsor. I hear the only offer so far was made by a chlorophyll deodorant.

But, all in all, Joe, it looks like the country will survive. The only fellow I know who doesn't have a job is your Uncle Jim—the one that swore off working back in 1910 during what the Democrats now refer to as "the first Taft administration."

I had lunch recently with your favorite pinup girl, Marilyn Monroe. She said to tell you she sends her best—and believe me, Joe, that is the best, as far as I could see.

Well, kid, keep close to your bunkie over there. The thing we'd like best is to have you with the family around our tree this year. That's the Christmas present the nation wants most now—to have you home again. You aren't forgotten.

Good luck,
Hal Boyl

Columbus Service Director Resigns

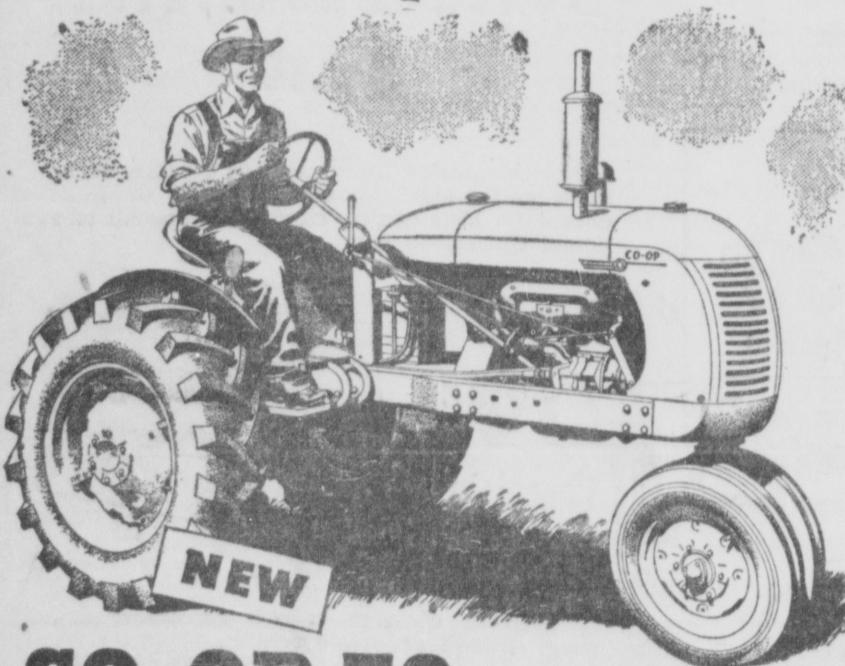

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Elmer A. Keller, Columbus service director for the past nine years, will leave that post Jan. 12 for a job in the state auditor's office.

Mayor James A. Rhodes, who will be the new Republican auditor, said he did not yet know what post Keller will be given.

Gas Fumes Fatal

CINCINNATI (AP)—Fumes from a gas heater apparently caused the deaths of Lawrence J. Ketteler, 45, and Mrs. Nina Park, 43, whose bodies were found Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Park, a divorcee.

Simple System For Piloting Airplane Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman, who once changed his mind about whether Dwight D. Eisenhower should succeed him, hasn't changed it about the President-elect's trip to Korea.

He said so at his news conference yesterday. He had nothing to add or take back, he said, from the remark he had made a week earlier. He had said then Eisenhower's campaign announcement he would go to Korea was demagogic, and that Eisenhower had to go through with it.

The Presidnet had no comment on Wednesday's meeting between Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who says there is a way to end the Korean War.

Oxford Man, 26, Freed On Bond

HAMILTON, O. (AP)—Clyde Brown, charged with manslaughter in the death of Mary Ann Fildes, 17, was free today under $5,000 bond pending grand jury action.

The man, married and a father, was arrested Sunday. He pleaded innocent Wednesday in Municipal Court and the case was referred to the grand jury. He said he picked up the girl in a bar and took her for a ride and she jumped from his car.

To GI Joe: Our Best Christmas Gift Would Be Having You Back

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to GI Joe in Korea:

Dear Joe,
Well, kid, I thought I would fill you in on the news from your Uncle Sugar Abie—the old USA.

Everybody is excited about the big reunion and reconciliation of Gen. Ike and Gen. Mac. There has been nothing like it since Stanley met Dr. Livingston in darkest Africa.

Gen. Mac is supposed to have bent Gen. Ike's ear with a new plan to get you out of Korea. The Democrats, taking a tip from Harry S. Truman, are saying, "well, what is it?" And the Republicans are saying, "wait and see."

However, nobody has said anything yet about speeding up the rotation system, and if I were you, Joe, I'd go on keeping my feet dry and my rifle clean. No matter what plan the generals make, it's the doughboy who has to carry it out.

Everybody here is off on the annual Christmas gift buying jag. It looks like a record year, and even the dogs on Park Avenue are wearing mink jackets.

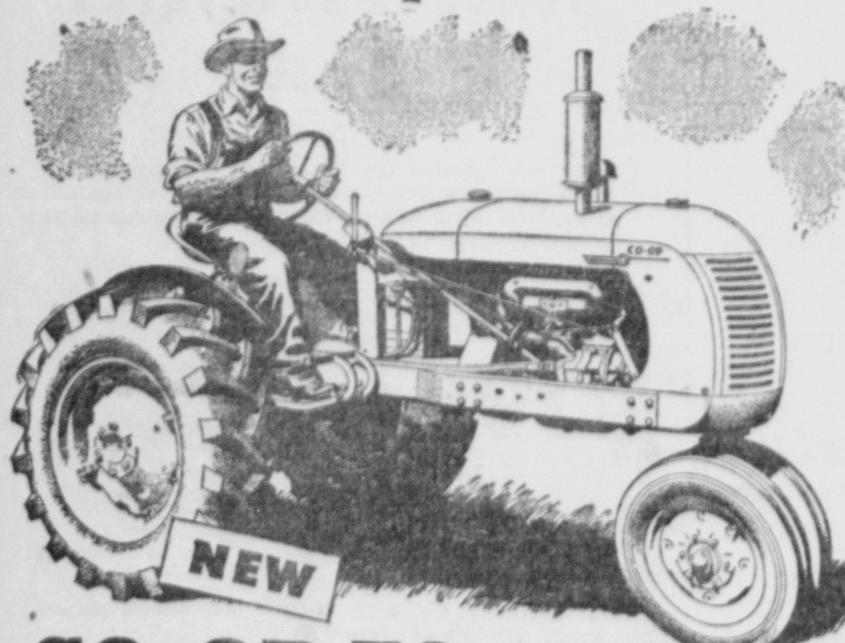

"I never saw such prosperity," a friend of mine told me. "Why, there were 40 people ahead of me at the finance company this morning, waiting for the doors to open so they could borrow money to buy Christmas presents."

The way things are, Joe, a fellow can hardly afford not to borrow money. It's the only way you can be sure you still got some credit. And, of course, the Democrats say, "Well, you might as well borrow all you can. When the Republicans get in, there won't be any money or credit either."

The Democrats are still so mad at losing the election it's hard to figure whether they are afraid of a depression under the GOP, or are yearning for one. I guess it is hard on morale to get thrown out of a swivel chair after 20 years.

The government is busy investigating everybody in Washington who can't afford to winter in Florida. The way it seems to work is that they all choose up

Stubbornly Sticks To Point

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman, who once changed his mind about whether Dwight D. Eisenhower should succeed him, hasn't changed it about the President-elect's trip to Korea.

He said so at his news conference yesterday. He had nothing to add or take back, he said, from the remark he had made a week earlier. He had said then Eisenhower's campaign announcement he would go to Korea was demagoguery, and that Eisenhower had to go through with it.

The President had no comment on Wednesday's meeting between Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who says there is a way to end the Korean War.

Well, kid, keep close to your bunker over there. The thing we'd like best is to have you with the family around our tree this year. That's the Christmas present the nation wants most now—to have you home again. You aren't forgotten.

Good luck,

Simple System For Piloting Airplane Told

DETROIT (AP)—A University of Detroit professor announced today he has worked out a new system of operating an airplane, so simple a beginner can learn its rudiments in two hours.

To demonstrate, Dr. Frederick W. Ross gave his short course of instruction to 18-year-old Elizabeth Klemens, who never has driven a car.

Two hours later Miss Klemens was able to take off in Dr. Ross' craft, make turns and even come in for a rough landing.

Dr. Ross, professor of aeronautical engineering at the U. of D., said his system eliminates conventional foot pedals and substitutes rudder control. All basic flight maneuvers are controlled through the conventional stick, he said.

State Aide's Wife Denies Drunk Driving

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP)—The wife of a State Department official has appealed her conviction on a drunken driving charge, automatically halting a three-hour jail sentence and $150 fine.

The jail term originally was 30 days but Arlington County Court Judge Paul D. Brown suspended all but three hours. He told Mrs. Foy D. Kohler he wanted her to see "the inside of a jail."

Witnesses testified Mrs. Kohler and her husband, a State Department policy planner, appeared intoxicated when their car knocked down a telephone pole early Dec. 6. The couple said they were en route home from a party.

The State Department said Kohler had with him at the time, in violation of security rules, a brief case containing secret documents. It was turned over to a department security officer.

Kohler paid an $8.25 fine on a charge of public intoxication. Bond of $500 was posted for Mrs. Kohler yesterday. A hearing on her appeal is scheduled two months hence.

Why start the day feeling dull and lousy because of too much acid churning in your stomach? Just 1 or 2 Tums, eaten after breakfast will pull you out of that "after-breakfast slump" and back on top of the world again. Tums quickly neutralize excess acid. WASHINGTON — Now, seven years after he first mentioned it, President Truman's compulsory health insurance plan is hardly more than a gleam in the eye of the man who steps out of the White House next month. He lost his fight for it.

But on the eve of his departure he has left a brand new plan, not his own, for incoming President Eisenhower. This plan was unveiled yesterday by the President's Commission on the Health Needs of the Nation. Truman urged the Eisenhower administration to take quick action on these new proposals.

"We are opposed to federal compulsory health insurance with its crushing cost, wasteful inefficiency, bureaucratic deadweight, and debased standards of medical care.... We pledge our continuous encouragement of improved methods of assuring health protection."

And, no matter what Eisenhower himself may think, he is dealing with a conservative Congress which is bound to go slow on any social changes. And that isn't because the Republicans control it. Every Congress since the war, whether Democrats or Republicans ran it, has been conservative.

Truman offered his compulsory health insurance plan to Congress in a special message Nov. 19, 1945. It never got to first base although since then Congress has voted money for medical services in several ways. Truman said of his plan: "This is not socialized medicine." But socialized medicine is what its critics have called the plan ever since.

The plan Truman had in mind would have been financed out of payroll deductions similar to those now made for social security. The AMA, which put on a huge campaign to prevent Truman's proposal from becoming law, disliked the thought of government say-so over doctors and seemed to think voluntary systems would meet the nation's health needs. Truman didn't look upon this idea as a solution at all.

The plan recommended yesterday by the President's commission would fall somewhere between the Truman and AMA ways of thinking. Whether the AMA will fight the commission's recommendations too remains to be seen. A spokesman said there'd be no AMA comment on the full report until it had a chance to study it.

In brief that plan would provide free or partly-paid health insurance policies for everyone who couldn't afford to buy one. To foot this bill the government would have to hand out about one billion dollars a year, with about three-quarters of it to be matched by the states, dollar for dollar.

The unmatched quarter of the government's money — all of it would come out of general tax funds — would go for building hospitals, expanding medical schools and helping research.

U.S. Christmas Business Above Par; Even $50 Neckties Now In Demand

NEW YORK — Christmas business is so good, says a Charlotte, N. C., merchant, that he even has a brisk demand for $50 neckties. They are made of velvet, woven with pure gold.

Denver's three biggest department stores agree that Yule business is "substantially heavier" than last year and will set new records.

In Chicago, President Joel Goldblatt of Goldblatt Inc., says:

"We're running 10 per cent ahead right now. If it keeps up it will be the biggest Christmas business in our history."

These enthusiastic comments are typical of others obtained in an Associated Press survey of Christmas shopping trends in 24 cities.

From coast to coast it's pretty much the same story: stores bulging with shoppers, downtown parking lots jammed, holiday buyers spending more money.

The one big exception is New York. John Raasch, president of Wanamaker's New York store, reports sales running behind last year "and I doubt if we'll pick up what we've lost."

He blames transportation difficulties, competition of convenient suburban shopping centers and, of all, the city sales tax of three cents on the dollar.

POPULATION QUANDARY

THAT OLD SAW, "the more you know, the less you know," seems to sum up the state of current knowledge with respect to the number of people in the world.

Information as to the size of the world's population would seem to be elementary, but several United Nations agencies that have been making a study of the subject appear to be more confused than ever.

The UN statistical office estimates there were 2.367 billion people on this mundane sphere in mid-1949, but the UN's world health organization, hazarding a guess that the total has increased since then at the rate of 60,000 a day, prefers to round out the figure at closer to 2.5 billion.

In either case it is regarded as entirely possible that the figures include errors in tens of millions, if not in hundreds of millions, caused by the lack of censuses and reliable methods of gathering vital statistics in so-called backward countries.

Consequently, UN statistical experts are pressing for adoption of a uniform statistical code that will bring the figures in accord with the facts. Acceptance of an international standard, however, is not expected for some time. Many member nations must first get their own books in order.

SMELLY BUSINESS

THE NEW YORK STATE Commission continues to dredge up a smelly tale of crime and corruption on the New York waterfront. Even normally blase New Yorkers are mesmerized by the seemingly endless account of bribery, collusion, graft and murder. The fact that they have known for a long time that all was not well at the docks does not make the stench less pungent.

The size of what is loosely described as the New York port staggers the imagination. Roughly, it consists of 750 miles of waterfront giving easement to 210 deep sea piers, capable of berthing 400 ships simultaneously, and some 1,800 other piers, wharves and bulkheads.

Stretching from the water's edge are hundreds of warehouses and innumerable lines of trunk-line railroad tracks. It is estimated that one of every 10 persons employed in the huge metropolitan New York area earns his or her living directly or indirectly from shipping or related industries.

Much of the nation's foreign commerce passes through the New York port. Continuation of blood-sucking conditions there adds to the cost of business.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19—As a last-minute counteroffensive against Republican plans to get the government out of the power and other enterprises competing with private business and industry, the outgoing Democrats have framed a challenge designed to embarrass the new administration politically. They will fight for retention and expansion of New Deal-Fair Deal reforms until noon of inauguration day on Jan. 20.

As forecast here, a definite move to effectuate Charles E. Wilson's proposal for disposing of an estimated $25 billion worth of Federal properties will be made as soon as Congress meets on January 3. Representative Frederick R. Coudert Jr. of New York, will introduce a resolution for a study of this problem by the House Appropriations Committee.

REDUCED SPENDING — The Bridges-Byrd demand for an inventory of authorizations and unspent appropriations totaling at least $12 billion has been reinforced by a report from the Jones Committee. After a behind-the-scenes investigation of pending power, reclamation and rivers and harbors programs, this inquiry into their necessity and desirability. They found that the need for many undertakings had disappeared.

If these various attacks on current and proposed spending succeed, it is estimated that the public debt, the budget and taxes can be cut by many billions of dollars sooner than President-elect Eisenhower promised during the campaign.

As yet, however, Ike has not given his blessing to these schemes for defanging and decentralizing the bureaucracy at Washington. But his speeches advocating maximum control and development at state and local levels, as well as the makeup of his Cabinet, encourage GOP leaders on Capitol Hill in the belief that he will support the growing movement.

RETRIBUTION'S AIM — In this, as well as in other fields, however, President Truman aims to checkmate Republican plans for a radical overhaul of the establishment he and FDR built here and throughout the country. He has given the green light for more rather than less planning and spending on federal expansion.

Gordon R. Clapp, TVA chairman, has served notice that he wants another $5 billion for his operations. Although TVA was launched as a water-power undertaking in 1933, a large portion of the new money will be used to build steam plants and transmission lines. It will be difficult to deny his request because of the need for hydro-electricity for nearby atomic centers.

Gov. Douglas McKay of Oregon, who will become Secretary of the Interior, has announced that he will ask for the resignation of Reclamation Commissioner Michael W. Straus, an Ickes appointee. But, in a final fling, Mike will submit to Congress a planned $2-billion program for power and irrigation works in a 17-state area.

REASON — Entirely apart from these grandiose plans, the Army Engineers and the Department of Agriculture have prepared blueprints for another expenditure of between $1 billion and $2 billion.

Since all these agencies—Interior, the Army Engineers and Agriculture—have powerful lobbies and friends in House and Senate, there will be a wild scramble for funds at a moment when the GOP seeks to carry out its economy pledges.

Thus these elaborate, expensive and politically appealing proposals will collide head-on with the Coudert-Jones-Bridges-Byrd demand for drastic curtailment of pending and proposed enlargement of the Federal structure.

And that, of course, is the reason for and the purpose of this desperate counteroffensive.

STALEMATE — The public power apostles about to vanish from the local scene profess utter cynicism about Eisenhower's ability to decontrol and decentralize the structure they have erected. In fact, they predict that he will not dare to make the effort after he has simple caps of state instead of coronets at Britain's coronation ceremony. That's cutting down on the overhead.

These Days

One of the most interesting characters to emerge from obscurity and to return to it in peace and safety is a powerful figure in the half-world of politics and the mobs. He has been known as "Three-Finger Brown;" his correct name is Thomas Luchese.

The accusation has been made that Luchese is the successor to Frank Costello in the control of the political power of New York City. Two investigations have brought to the attention of the residents of our largest city the power of the mobs. The Kefauver Committee brought Costello to heel. Prior to Kefauver's exposure, Costello was a man about town who associated with the best of them on terms of intimacy. The citizens never elected Frank Costello to office, but somehow he came into possession of some powers of municipal appointment, being particularly influential with the local judiciary. Costello was eliminated by publication.

In the last mayoralty campaign, three candidates were running for mayor, Vincent Impellitteri, Ferdinand Pecora, and Edward Corsi. The story went the rounds that Costello favored Pecora who as a judge had established a good reputation; that Luchese favored Impellitteri who made a fascinating display of independence; and that Governor Thomas E. Dewey favored Corsi who is known as a liberal.

It was expected that Pecora would be elected; instead Impellitteri was. In the other political circles, it is still being said that after this victory, Luchese decided not to be number two to Costello and set out to remove him, which was accomplished when Costello was sentenced to imprisonment in a federal court.

At the time of the Kefauver investigation, it was hoped that the exposure of Costello would lessen the power of the mobs in New York City where they engage not only in the dope traffic, but in every form of crime and vice. They have penetrated labor unions, particularly the waterfront which has become a jungle. They have moved in on the food supply, garment, fur, and trucking industries. But the elimination of Costello has not eliminated the evil.

The mob boss of New York remains Lucky Luciano who lives in Italy. Students of the rule by the mob (often referred to as the Mafia) had hoped that the investigation by the New York State Crime Commission into the affairs of Luchese would lead to the pattern of Luciano's power and his ability to control affairs in New York by remote control.

Luciano was imprisoned, pardoned and released and left for Italy, where he lives in great wealth and exposes himself to the public view in all his opulence. It is believed that he has established a world monopoly of the dope trade.

In the underworld, dope means power. The turnover is so rapid and profitable that the narcotics merchant is able to build a huge fortune in a short time and to use that fortune to gain control of a mob, to intimidate enemies or to have them killed and to purchase politicians who will do his bidding.

Drug Aids Arthritis Sufferers

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ARTHRITIS, the joint disease that attacks and cripples so many older persons, has been receiving much attention the last few years from research workers. They have made wonderful new discoveries, but many of these also have drawbacks. Some treatments which relieve pain and swelling also bring certain complications.

Two newly discovered hormones, ACTH and cortisone, have definitely proved helpful to people suffering from rheumatoid arthritis. This type of arthritis is due to an infection, and brings redness, swelling, and crippling of the joints, usually accompanied by fever.

Desirable Complications

However, if these drugs are used in the wrong way, for a long time, they may bring on a form of diabetes. They can also cause a person to retain salt within his body, which leads to an excess of fluid in the body, a condition known as edema. These drugs may also cause a rise in blood pressure and mental changes.

To avoid these undesirable complications, doctors have been trying out a newly discovered form of cortisone, known as compound F, or hydrocortisone.

Instead of being taken by mouth or injected into the muscles, this new drug is injected into the space between the bones of the diseased joint. Thus, it acts directly on the joint affected by the arthritis.

This drug is especially valuable when arthritis affects one or a few joints, not many joints. The treatment promptly relieves distress in the particular joint, and some persons are relieved for a long period of time. In others, relief lasts from a few days to several weeks.

Good Improvement

Many patients who do not respond even to heavy doses of ACTH or cortisone injected into a muscle or vein, show good improvement from small injections of hydrocortisone into the joints. Certain cases of osteo or degenerative arthritis are also helped by this form of treatment.

We must remember that this treatment is not the final answer to the cure of arthritis, but many patients will enjoy relief from pain and swelling after using hydrocortisone. Since it also eliminates the dangers of side effects, it should prove a very effective drug for this purpose.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

J. N.: My tongue is always coated. What would you advise?

Answer: Coated tongue sometimes comes from constipation, although in many cases no cause for it can be discovered. If you are in good physical condition and feel well, no attention need be paid to the fact that your tongue is coated.

Child Problems and Solutions

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

When you put your finger across the open hand of a tiny baby he may close his hand around your finger about as automatically as a chicken grasps its toes about a roosting pole.

Indeed, you almost may be able to lift the front of the baby's body while he thus grasps your finger or a rod.

After a few months he may hold a spoon or other small object tightly in his grasp for an appreciable period. From then on until he is about a year of age, he may keep small things in his grasp for long intervals at a stretch. He does not have to learn to grasp, but he does have to learn to release his grasp.

When he stands with a small object in his hand that extends over the edge of his baby pen, obviously intending to drop the object, it may not drop at all unless it is a relatively heavy object.

Then if he tries to drop a much lighter object, he seems to be puzzled that it doesn't drop. Thus over a period of several days he may try many times before being able to drop certain objects.

AFTER GAINING some skill at dropping things, the baby begins to throw them. Yet it may be several weeks more before he can drop a rubber ball. It's fascinating to observe the many trials and failures of a baby before he learns to throw a ball, though he can throw a light block larger than this ball.

Many times he may make the throwing motion without success while the ball is in his grasp.

There comes a time when the baby who has manipulated toys and nondescript objects in his play pen without throwing any of them out everything out.

If you proceed to put the objects back right after he has thrown them out, he will be apt to throw them out again.

Gifts were exchanged and wrappings were judged. Prizes went to Mrs. Pauline Adkins, first; Mrs. Leo Haltzmueller, second; Mrs. Bertha Porter, third, and Opal Towler, Barbara Neff and Suzanne Porter, honorable mention.

Mrs. Lee Downs and Mrs. James Hott served as judges. Each member brought a gift for the Children's Home, Home for the Aged and the Veteran's Home.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Everett Grabill, Mrs. Kenneth Gossard and Mrs. Ernest Sheets.

Variety Sewing Club Has Dinner

Junior Modern Woodmen of America held their Christmas party Thursday evening in the club room with 43 members present. A program of recitations, readings and popular Christmas songs was given by the children, followed by group singing of carols.

Santa Claus arrived to distribute bags of candy and oranges to all the children. Mrs. Ruby Cross, club director and Clyde Derexson assisted in distributing the gifts and treats.

Guests present were Lou Markin and son, Danny of Columbus, Mrs. Charles Pollack, Mrs. Goldie Bensohner, Mrs. Bessie Huffer, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Eva Hanley, Mrs. Clyde Derexson and Robert Cross.

Next meeting of the club will be held Jan. 21. At that time there will be a ceremony of adoption for all new members, followed by election of officers.

Mrs. Baker Fetes Ladies Aid Group

Mrs. Charles Baker, Circleville Route 4, was hostess at the all day meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Fast Ringgold United Brethren church, Thursday.

The day was spent sewing and finishing carpets for the basement of the church. Mrs. John Trone gave prayer before the pot-luck dinner, after which the group sang the doxology.

Following dinner, Mrs. Harry Betts, president, opened the meeting with group singing.

The Rev. Ketner led in prayer, and the Christmas story from St. Luke was read by Mrs. E. D. Hammel. The group sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

After roll call, additional plans were made to send out cards to those not able to attend meetings. Committees reported on business. Mrs. John Peters closed the meeting with a prayer. Three visitors were present at this meeting.

It is better not to replace the objects right after he has thrown them out, but to let him learn the consequences of his acts.

However, after an appreciable interval your returning the objects to him may be desirable, causing him, perhaps, to play with them again.

Also, you may observe that he throws out only certain objects, keeping others he prefers to play with.

Emmanuel—God With Us

"HE SHALL SAVE HIS PEOPLE FROM THEIR SINS"

Scripture—Matthew 1.

BY NEWMAN CAMPBELL
HOW MANY of us can trace our ancestry back very far? There is said to be no accurate genealogy for Abraham Lincoln before 1700; nor for George Washington before 1600. In our lesson Jesus' ancestors are traced back thousands of years.

Many Americans have ancestors who came over with the very earliest settlers. Others whose people crossed the ocean later or who themselves are immigrants, may have even longer genealogies back in their former homelands, but all become Americans, loyal, faithful citizens of our "melting pot."

The chapter assigned as today's lesson is very short and about half of it is taken by the genealogy. The rest relates to Joseph's reactions to his realization that Mary, his affianced wife, was going to have a child.

St. Luke tells us of the declaration to Mary by the angel that

"The kinship between God and

MEMORY VERSE
"Thou shalt call His name Jesus; for it is He that shall save His people from their sins."—Matthew 1:21.

she had been chosen to become the mother of the Christ, and her joy and thanksgiving over the news.

Joseph, however, did not know of this event and when he became aware that she would soon be a mother, he was troubled. He was a just man, Matthew tells us, and tender-hearted, too, we can surmise. Now the punishment for an unmarried mother in Palestine was severe. It had been modified, however, so that the husband could divorce her publicly and shame her before the world, or he could do it quietly by giving the woman a bill of separation in the presence of two witnesses.

However, Joseph, too, had a visitor in the night, an angel who told him of the old prophecy, "Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

A wise man, Joseph, to do nothing hastily that he might regret later. The angel of the Lord said to Joseph, "Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary, thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost."

That quotation is from our editor Wilbur M. Smith, D.D.

The angel also told Joseph of the ancient prophecy, so he, "being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife."

They did not live together as man and wife, however, until after

Jesus' birth. He took the dream as a revelation from God and a token of His favor, which it was.

Our editor says that the name of Jesus is the Greek form of the Hebrew word, Joshua, and Joshua is an abbreviation of the name

Jehoushua, from two words—Jah and Yasha, meaning "to save."

Let me quote from a sermon by the late J. D. Jones, who is quoted at length by the editor of our notes. It should bring our

Father and His son, Jesus, nearer to us:

"The kinship between God and man is deeper and more vital than the difference. God breathed into man the breath of life, and he became a living soul. In the image of God created He him.

God is spirit, and man is spirit,

too."

It follows from all this that if God must reveal Himself, it is in and through man He must do it, for only in man can He do it adequately or fully.

"He can show His power in the material universe. His wisdom in the field of history; but to show

His love, His self-sacrificing and redeeming love which is His essential nature, He had to reveal

Himself in the person of Man.

Man's nature makes it possible for Him to do so."

In conclusion, let us remind ourselves that "Abraham was called of God; David was anointed

by God; Christ was foreordained by God through the prophet. He was conceived by the power of the Third Person of the Godhead. He was given two o-names that providentially reveal the love of God for lost men, His coming was announced by the angels of God."

Elinor Williams'Teen Tips

When a boy invites a girl to a special weekend at his school, who pays her expenses?

Big weekends at schools and colleges are wonderful fun, so let's try to find the answer to this high school girl's query. She writes—

"I am going steady with a boy who goes to military school and he has invited me to go there for their Homecoming Weekend. I will go with his folks. We will have to stay at a hotel and eat our meals out. At the hotel, who pays for my room and meals? Should I take his mother a gift? What would you suggest?"

Ans.—You will be the guest of the boy and his parents for the weekend. His parents will make a reservation for a single room for you at the hotel and will pay all your expenses, including meals, while you are there. (If they didn't provide transportation, you would pay your train fare, but that's all.)

It would be nice to take his mother a small gift, since she is your hostess. A good choice is something rather impersonal that every woman likes, since you probably don't know her preferences; it shouldn't be expensive.

Here are some suggestions of appropriate hostess gifts: fragrant bath powder, cologne, or a bath mitt (these are terry cloth and contain scented soap and water softeners). A set of two matching bath preparations or perhaps a pair of matching colognes in liquid and tick form.

A gift package of bubble or foam bath. A box of candy.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
HOW MANY OF US CAN TRACE our ancestry back very far? There is said to be no accurate genealogy for Abraham Lincoln before 1700; nor for George Washington before 1600. In our lesson Jesus' ancestors are traced back thousands of years.

Many Americans have ancestors who came over with the very earliest settlers. Others whose parents crossed the ocean later or who themselves are immigrants, may have even longer genealogies back in their former homelands, but all become Americans, loyal, faithful citizens of our "melting pot."

The chapter assigned as today's lesson is very short and about half of it is taken by the genealogy. The rest relates to Joseph's reactions to his realization that Mary, his affianced wife, was going to have a child. St. Luke tells us of the declaration to Mary by the angel that she had been chosen to become the mother of the Christ, and her joy and thanksgiving over the news.

Joseph, however, did not know of this event and when he became aware that she would soon be a mother, he was troubled. He was a just man, Matthew tells us, and tender-hearted, too, we can surmise. Now the punishment for an unmarried mother in Palestine was severe. It had been modified, however, so that the husband could divorce her publicly and shame her before the world, or he could do it quietly by giving the woman a bill of separation in the presence of two witnesses.

However, Joseph, too, had a visitor in the night, an angel who told him of the old prophecy. "Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

A wise man, Joseph, to do nothing hastily that he might regret later. The angel of the Lord, said to Joseph, "Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary, thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

Middleweight Field Vacated By Robinson

Randy Turpin Listed Top Contender; U.S. List To Be Pared

NEW YORK (AP)—With Sugar Ray Robinson retired—positively—the next step is an elimination tournament to set up a new middleweight champion.

Already the wheels are turning for an international tournament involving all the top contenders. For once, the National Boxing Association and New York State Athletic Commission are in agreement.

Robinson took a backhanded slap at the New York commission Thursday when he released his "complete and unequivocal" retirement through Abe Greene of Paterson, N. J., commissioner of the NBA. New York stripped him of his title Dec. 4 for not defending within the six-month limit.

George Barton, NBA president, told Greene by telephone from his St. Paul office that the American title should be cleared up at once by a contest between Bobo Olson, ranking challenger, and Ernie Durando, Paddy Young and Rocky Castellani as runners-up.

THE SURVIVOR would meet the winner of a Randy Turpin—Charles Hume bout in Europe. The NBA favors speedy action with no more than 90 days between bouts.

Bob Christenberry, New York chairman, also was making plans for a tournament by reviewing the outstanding contenders.

"Turpin is No. 1 on everybody's list," said Christenberry. "And Olson is the outstanding contender. Then there are Hume, Durando, Young, Castellani, Walter Cartier and perhaps some others."

Jim Norris, president of the IBC, announced Dec. 10 plans to hold a tournament.

In addition to the names Christenberry mentioned Norris may include the winner of tonight's Billy Graham—Joey Giardello bout. Graham, although a 148-pound "middleweight," wants to mingle with the heavier boys.

"A lot of very big people, and I mean very big people in boxing, put a lot of pressure on me to go through with the Turpin match," said Robinson. "But I felt I should have made this announcement long before. Finally I made up my mind all of a sudden. I don't want to be like a lot of others who didn't retire in time."

Robinson said he was retiring because "at this stage of my career I don't feel I can give my followers the best I have. I don't want to let them down."

IN HIS LAST fight, June 25, he collapsed in the 103-degree heat, a 14th-round TKO victim of Joey Maxim in a bid for a third title.

Robinson's future is set. He owns a beer and ale distributing agency, a bar and grill, a lingerie shop, a barbershop, cleaning establishment and a real estate office in Harlem. He started a career as a night club entertainer Nov. 8 and is booked for a long tour that will take him to Detroit, Chicago, Las Vegas and Miami Beach.

One of the all time greats of the sport, the 32-year-old former welterweight and middleweight king lost only three of 137 pro fights.

'Average Fan' Named As New Cleveland Indians President

CLEVELAND (AP)—Myron H. Wilson, an "average fan" with a few shares of baseball stock but no management experience in professional sports, took over today as president of the Cleveland Indians.

Ellis Ryan quit the job under fire Thursday and Wilson's first act as new chief was to strengthen the hand of Hank Greenberg by expressing "utmost confidence" in the general manager.

Wilson, saying he would continue his insurance business, indicated a freer hand for Greenberg by pointing out he would not make the presidency a full-time job.

"I don't know much about picking ball players or even trading them," he added. "That's Hank's department."

Greenberg's differences with Ryan on operational policies had been a factor in the dispute leading to Ryan's departure, although the former home run slugger never took part in the office squabble.

WILSON, WHO is 65 years old, has never met Tribe field boss Al Lopez and describes himself as just a "little stockholder begging for tickets to come and see a game." He estimates he saw only 12 to 15 tilts yearly.

Although among the anti-Ryan group in the present controversy, Wilson was a friend of Ryan and was in the syndicate fronted by Ryan which bought the club from Bill Veeck three years ago.

The dispute leading to Wilson's election broke into the open two weeks ago at the major league meeting in Phoenix, Ariz.

Details never have been made public but Ryan was criticized for advocating purchase of the Indianapolis team in the American Association. Indianapolis lost money last year.

Ryan, admitting the squabble, decided to make a fight of it. But Thursday he could win no more than a temporary stalemate at a special stockholders' meeting.

As the meeting got under way, Wilson was elected a director, replacing Loring Gelbach, a banker who wanted to quit.

A tally then showed the anti-Ryan faction had 1,526 shares to the 1,464 held by Ryan and his backers. That was not enough to tip the even split between the club's 12 directors and left Ryan still in the chair.

But it did show Ryan's opponents had enough shares to change the bylaws in January at the annual meeting providing for an additional director who could then help oust Ryan. With that, Ryan quit.

Graham-Giardello Match Awaited

NEW YORK (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson's retirement points up tonight's Billy Graham-Joey Giardello fight in Madison Square Garden as a part of the general middleweight picture.

Graham, beaten twice in welter title bids, wants to mingle with the middles although he only weighs 148 pounds. Giardello, the Philadelphia speedster, is ranked ninth as a middleweight. The Garden 10-rounder, scheduled for 10 p. m. EST, will be carried on radio and television.

Cager Scores 95 Points In Game

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Don Summers scored 95 points in a municipal basketball league game Thursday night as his team, the Buffalo All-Stars, overwhelmed the Jay Hawks, 141-35.

He tossed in 41 field goals and 13 free throws in 32 minutes.

Holidays Delay Leagues Here

Circleville's Wednesday night bowling teams and the Thursday night Elks league keglers are to suspend operations until after the Holidays.

Wednesday league operations are to be discontinued until Jan. 7, while Elks bowlers will resume action on Jan. 8.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS

Sincere thanks is extended to the many friends of our beloved husband and father, the late Walter Crissinger for kindnesses at the time of his death.

To those who expressed sympathy and those who sent flowers we are grateful.

Also to the many friends who came to say words and to Mader Funeral Home for efficient service we extend thanks. We especially thank members of the Circleville Police Department, Mayor Ed Aney, Sheriff Charles Radtke, members of Sheriff's department and Auxiliary.

Mrs. Crissinger, sons and daughter.

Best Sees No Great Threat In Farm-To-City Trend

County's Agent Says It Means U. S. Growing

Government Policy Rated More Vital Detail To Watch

Pickaway County Extension Agent Larry Best said Thursday he sees "no reason to get excited" over recent disclosure that nearly 6,300 Ohio residents are moving every year from farms to the city areas.

Best declared it's the natural trend to be expected with continued growth of the nation's mechanical age.

"The time to worry," he said, "would be when we found the trend going the other way."

A bureau report on Ohio agriculture said mechanization of farms has reduced the number of farm workers, both the hired hands and the family farmer, from 387,930 in 1935 to 293,044 in 1950. The report also revealed the growth of cities and industry has been encroaching upon farm land acres.

ACCORDING to figures compiled in the survey, 90.2 per cent of all Ohio land was in farms in 1920 as compared to only 79.9 per cent devoted to farming in 1950.

Best said he has seen similar reports, but warned that "many folks draw the wrong conclusion from them. It's the natural course of events in America's development."

The county agent's reference to the wrong conclusion was in the widespread impression that the farm-to-city trend means a dwindling interest in agriculture and increasingly serious manpower problems for the farmer.

Best noted that "many farmers everywhere are still having trouble in getting help when they need it," but he feels this situation can be considered normal in the full picture and that it is not being increased to any serious degree by the trend away from farm living.

Citing national figures supporting the recent statewide report, Best said America's farm population this year is approximately 23 million as compared to 32 million in 1910. And over the same period, he pointed out, the whole nation's population increased from a little more than 92 million to 157 million.

The farm-to-city trend, he emphasized, has been steady despite the great increase in the nation's overall population.

"BUT IT'S nothing to get excited about," he said. "In a very great degree it's only the reflection of improvement we've made in our farm production methods. Every year, through our mechan-

Presbyterian Church To Be Ike's Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect and Mrs. Eisenhower have selected the National Presbyterian Church on fashionable Connecticut Avenue as their place of worship in Washington. Seven presidents have attended services there.

The church's present minister is the Rev. Dr. Edward L. R. Elson, who served with Gen. Eisenhower in the European Theater in World War II.

The church, announcing its selection by the Eisenhowers yesterday, said Dr. Elson will go to New York soon to confer with them on details of a pre-inaugural private service for members of the immediate family Jan. 20.

Presidents who have worshipped at the National Presbyterian Church are Jackson, Pierce, Polk, Cleveland, Buchanan, Grant and Benjamin Harrison. The church has long had a "President's Pew."

Santa Wins $25 A Week Raise

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Santa Claus has won a $25-a-week raise.

Ernie Fast, head of the AFL-American Guild of Variety Artists in the San Francisco Bay area, said the big, jovial men who play St. Nick for department store shoppers are getting $100 for a five-day, 27½-hour week this season.

ization, we're needing less and less people on the farms to do the work.

"Furthermore, it is a trend that had to come since—in the nation's past—we had so many people living on farms that the balance of our social structure just couldn't take care of them. It is well to remember that the nation's farm production now is about 40 per cent above what it was prior to World War II.

"The figures in the state report are very likely a true indication of the picture, but we must not draw the wrong conclusion from them.

"Any nation as it gets older and develops its production methods and machinery naturally tends to become an industrial nation.

"Rather than worrying about the nation's farm-to-city trend, I feel we should be much more concerned with the policies of the government which guide such great changes. The trend away from the farms is a healthy trend, but over it all must be capable control to maintain the balance and equality we need to continue our growth.

"It is upon that we should center our attention in the interests of the modern farmer."

Ohio Highway Snarl Facing New Assembly

Legislature Slated To Tangle With Road Improvement Problem

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Adequate highways to handle Ohio's thickening traffic poses a major problem for the next legislature.

Almost everyone agrees the state needs better roads. But they can't seem to agree together on how to pay for them.

Talk of raising more highway money usually turns to the big trucks as a likely source of more taxes.

The truckers, nixed for an extra seven million dollars a year in license fees by the last General Assembly, blink unhappily in the spotlight.

Railroads, who own and maintain their roadbeds, stay offstage but help keep alive talk of higher taxes for their freight-hauling competitors.

Many truckers appear resigned to another boost in fees. But they make it clear they will fight to keep any increases well below current proposals. And they are dead set against a ton-mile tax, based on the weight of a truck and the distance it travels.

Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, again facing a Republican-dominated legislature, continues to advocate a ton-mile tax as the best solution to the problem.

The last GOP-controlled General Assembly sidetracked his ton-mile tax proposal and instead boosted truck license fees. But lawmakers concede additional revenues fall far short of needs for proposed highway improvements.

Highway experts claim the state needs another $35 million annually to finance an adequate program for good roads in the next two decades. State-collected highway user revenues totaled about $140 million in 1951.

Lausche asserts his ton-mile tax plan, coupled with an increase in gasoline and diesel fuel revenues, would finance improvements on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Lausche stalwarts on the Ohio Program Commission recently succeeded in getting a ton-mile tax provision included in recommendations the state planning body will submit to the legislature convening Jan. 5.

The commission's highway investigating committee earlier turned down a ton-mile tax in favor of a graduated increase in truck fees. An Ohio Petroleum Institute spokesman said the proposed increases would cost truckers another 23 million dollars annually.

But when the commission considered recommendations of its committee, Lausche supporters took command. They knocked out the fee schedule. Substituted was a recommendation for additional revenue through higher truck fees and a weight-distance tax. That apparently set the stage for another ton-mile tax fight next year.

The commission went along with the committee proposal to hike motor vehicle fuel taxes. Enactment would raise taxes on gasoline from 4 to 5 cents a gallon. It would jump diesel fuel taxes from 4 to 6 cents a gallon. Together the increases would yield more than $2 million a year.

But that would leave highway planners some 13 million dollars short of their goal of an additional 35 million dollars a year. That's where truckers may come in for another tax boost.

Thugs Return Airline Theft

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Two bandits kidnapped at gunpoint an American Airlines messenger who was on his way to make a $100,000 bank deposit but handed the money bag back when they discovered it contained only checks.

Detective Lt. Paul Livingston said the men left Joe Wing, the 20-year-old employee, bound and gagged in their stolen automobile yesterday after driving him around the city for about 45 minutes. Wing worked free and telephoned his employer.

This subcommittee conducted a study of the government's civil works program and said the current estimate of the Ohio River program stands at $1,735,365,000 as compared with original estimates that totaled $738,021,000.

Some of these projects were authorized by Congress as far back as 1935, but most came along after the great Ohio River flood of 1937.

Congress so far has appropriated only $493,622,000 toward this work.

The subcommittee pointed out the vast backlog of such projects all over the country and suggested needs in 1948.

Ohio Flood Control Plan Cost Doubles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The total estimated cost of projects included in the Ohio River basin flood control program has more than doubled over the years, a House Public Works Subcommittee has reported.
